DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

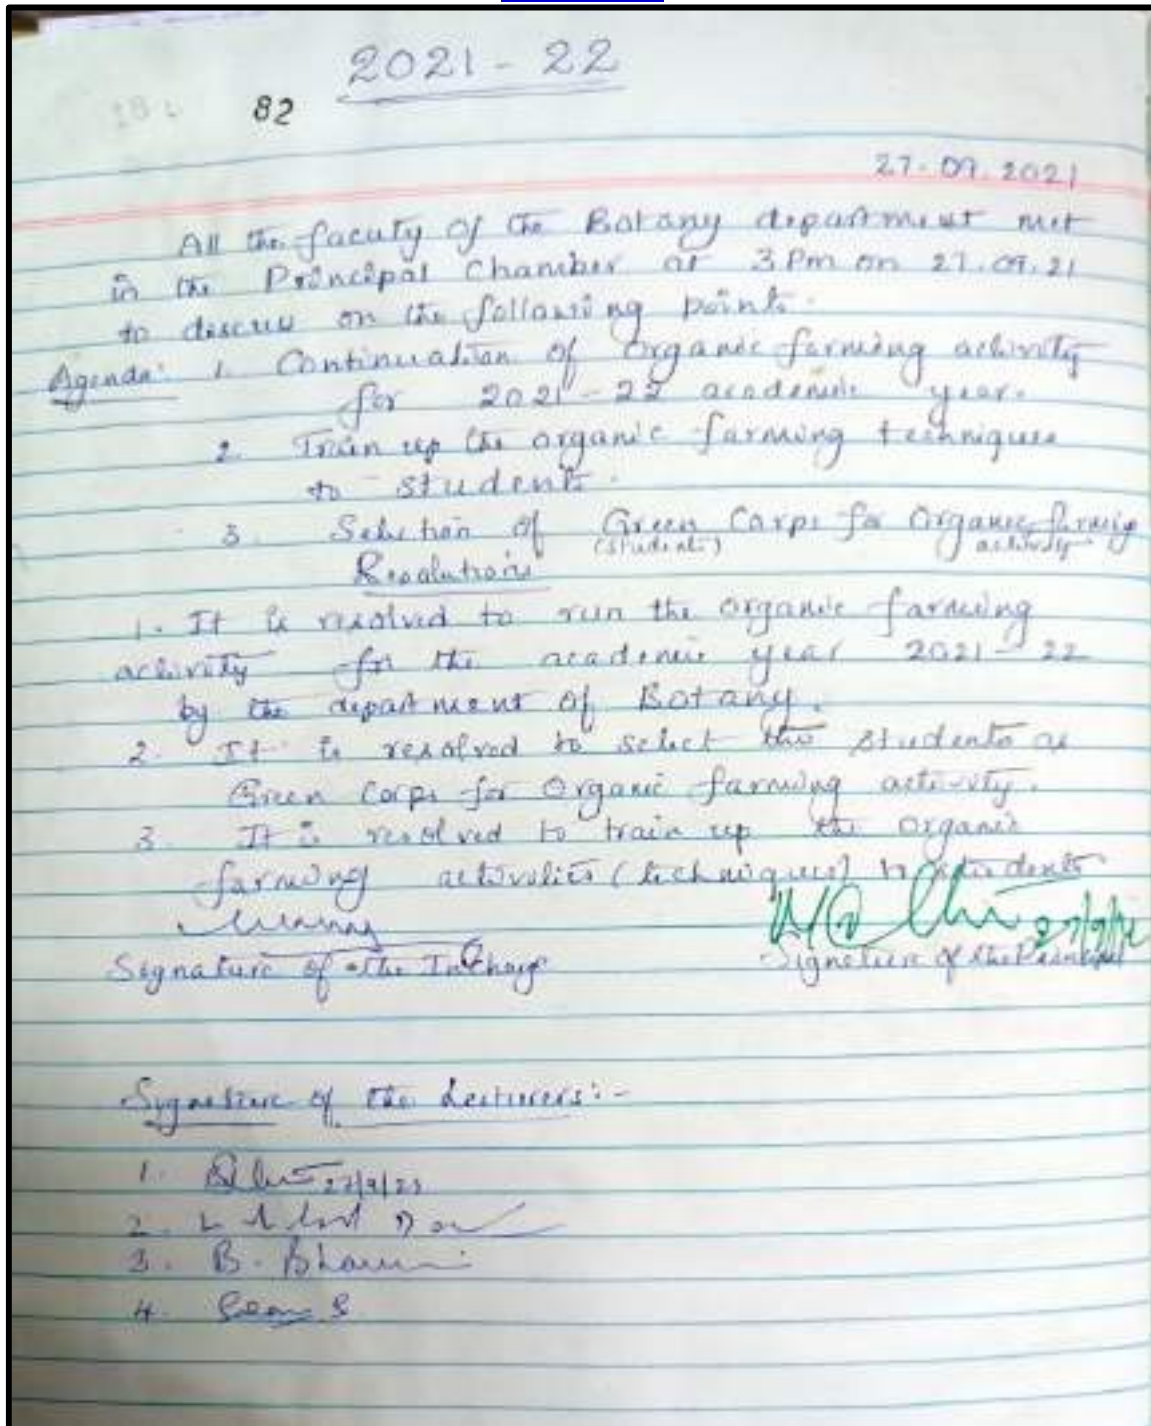

BEST PRACTICE: ORGANIC FARMING ACTIVITY FOR 2021-22

The College has started Organic farming under the supervision of the Department of Botany from June 2017. One Acre of land besides multi-Purpose Hall was selected for this purpose. An amount of Rs.20,000/- was sanctioned as seed money for the purpose. The Department has established a MOU with Sri. Chandra Mouli, Environmental activist, the recipient of Award from the Govt. of Telangana for providing technical support related to Organic farming and to provide inputs such as country varieties of Vegetable seeds, Vermi compost unit installation, Preparation of Jeevamrutham. A group of 54 students from II BZC have constituted as College Green Corps and taken the responsibility for preparing the land and fortified the soil with vermicompost and organic Manure, marketing etc. A separate water connection is provided and a variety of Greens like Spinach, Fenugreek leaves, Coriander leaves etc. and Vegetables like Ridge Guard, Lady Fingers, Tomato, Green Chilies, Cucumber, Radish, Bitterguard, Brinjal, Cluster beans etc., have been grown. Two external members were arranged to assist the students. The College Green Corps have monitored the entire practice. The Elixir for Modern Day Agriculture i.e. "JEEVAMRUTHAM" is prepared with Dhal flour (Besan), Jaggery, Cow urine, Cow Dung, Mud, Neem oil and water and sprayed over the crops for the biological control of pests.

Marketing of the Products: The Greens and Vegetables produced were supplied to the Hostel Kitchen. The price of the products was remitted to the department of Botany and it was utilized to meet the contingent expenditure and for reinvestment.

Evidence of success: The Green Corps College student volunteers have reaped the crop and decided the cost accordingly to the market price and the cost of production. The organic vegetables and Greens were supplied to the Hostel Kitchen and sold to the members of the staff. As a result, the cost of purchasing vegetables for Hostel Kitchen has been reduced and in turn the mess bills of the students. The remaining amount collected was utilized towards the daily wages of labor arranged.

Department of Physics

Best Practices

Best Practice 1:

Title:ICT Facility for Students

Objectives:To encourage the students for the use of ICT facility in building up their talent and enhancing their technical skills.

The Context:Provision of computer system with internet facility will be more useful to the students in improving their technical skills. The challenging issue addressed in this context is lack of more computers.

The Practice:The department of physics is providing this facility to all MPC and MPCs students of three years.They will use the system for preparing Power Point Presentations,for report writing of Internship and in preparing digital assignments. The students enrolled in SWAYAM-NPTEL online courses utilize the internet facility to go through the weekly video lectures.

Evidence of Success:

The image displays two photographs of student attendance registers. The registers are organized into columns, with the first column listing student names and the second column listing their roll numbers. The registers are filled with handwritten entries, including names and dates, indicating student attendance. The text in the registers is somewhat blurry but clearly shows a list of names and corresponding numbers.

Most of the students are making use of this facility for their needs. Students feel this provision of ICT very helpful in improving their technical skills.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required: No specific problems are encountered.

Best Practice 2:

Title: Observation of National Science Day and Energy Conservation Day.

Objective:

- To inculcate scientific thinking, scientific spirit and scientific temper among the students.
- To make the students aware of essential natural resources and the relation between energy consumption and economic growth.
- The objective to celebrate the National Energy Conservation Day is to drive mass awareness about the importance of energy efficiency and conservation.

Context:

- Every year National Science Day is observed by the Department of Physics to mark the discovery of the Raman Effect by Indian scientist sir Chandrashekhara Venkata Raman on February 28, 1928.
- Every year December 14 is observed as National Energy Conservation Day. The Energy Efficiency Bureau implemented the Indian Energy Conservation Act in 2001. The BEE is a constitutional body that works under the Indian Government and helps in the development of policies and strategies to reduce the use of energy.

The Practice:

The Department of Physics conducts Essay writing, Elocution and Poster Presentation competitions at college level for both National Science Day and Energy Conservation Day. The winners are awarded by the department of physics with appreciation certificates and prizes in order to encourage them.

The department of physics celebrates National Science Day every year. In this connection, the department conducts various competitions, Science Expo, Webinar etc. In Feb"2022the department conducted Science Expo by involving all three-year physics students by exhibiting UG Physics experiments. Various department students and junior college students visited and enlightened with science expo.
